I. Summary

NYU Langone Health is committed to operating in an ethical manner and in compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements. Even the appearance of an institutional conflict of interest in human subject research can be damaging to the reputation of NYU Langone Health.

NYU Langone Health's Policies on Conflicts of Interest, Commitment and Consulting provides a comprehensive approach for the identification, disclosure and oversight of ~~NYU Conflicts arising from the product being tested in the project or in the for-profit research sponsor of the project.~~ ~~NYU Conflicts arising from~~

Under this Policy, NYU Langone Health must identify when an Institutional Financial Interest (as defined below) may affect or appear to affect the design, conduct, reporting, review, or oversight of a human subjects research project. NYU Langone Health, through its Conflict of Interest Management Unit (CIMU), will then review and evaluate such interests, determine if an institutional conflict of interest exists, and determine whether such institutional conflict can be managed or eliminated in order to permit NYU Langone Health to engage in the project.

II.

Applicability

This Policy applies to all Investigators participating in human subjects research conducted at or under the auspices of NYU Langone Health. All capitalized terms shall have the meaning set forth in Section VI below.
